Meet our Board of Directors: Elizabeth Bradham

I obviously do not need to explain my devotion to HHAS - my last name says it all. Animal welfare has always been a major focus in my life. In addition to Hallie Hill, I serve on the boards of The Humane Society of the U.S. and Project Chimps, another sanctuary, in Morganton, Georgia. In past years I have served on the boards of Charleston Animal Society (CAS) and The American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA),

I am not sure how many dogs I have adopted from HHAS over the years, but they have always been a mainstay of my household, even when living in New York. Some of my dogs went from being strays in the Ravenel/Hollywood area, to walking on Fifth and Park Avenues, rather a rags to riches story! One of my dogs from Hallie Hill, Davey, a lab/chow mix, had a particular route which he liked to follow each evening, as he knew which doormen kept dog biscuits. He knew the route so well that he would take houseguests on his walk and then bring them back to my house, after visiting his doormen friends.

As the only sanctuary in the county, Hallie Hill works with Charleston Animal Society and other rescue groups to maintain our No Kill status. When CAS has a dog or cat that has suffered either medical or emotional trauma that makes it unavailable for immediate adoption, Hallie Hill has taken in these animals and given them the quiet, security, love and care that they need to get back on their feet. Just as some of us require a longer time to heal, the same holds true for dogs and cats. And just as we have social and medical services for elderly people, especially those in need, Hallie Hill offers the same type of services and care for our animals. As a result, Hallie Hill has been a critical link in the continuum of care for the animals in our community. Hallie Hill could serve as a template for other sanctuaries - which are necessary to achieve No Kill South Carolina.

Lizzy is originally from central Florida and moved to Charleston recently to pursue her Master in Historic Preservation in a joint program at Clemson University/College of Charleston. In her free time she can be found crafting, hiking, or rock climbing. She loves playing endless games of fetch with her parent's pups, Chewie and Kalla, and is an expert at sewing up their torn toys. Thank you Lizzy for your dedication and hard work!!!

January's Adorable Adoptables!

Go to halliehill.com and fill out an application to come out to HHAS to meet these wonderful animals!

Harley

Meet Handsome Harley! Harley (13 years old) is a cute little guy! We lovingly call him "Grouch" because he can be a little grouchy at times! He had irritated skin when he came to us that is healing beautifully! This boy would love to gain trust with his person! He will keep you entertained all day long. He is nervous of storms and would love a warm lap to curl up on. Harley hopes to find a home where he can live out his golden years. He promises to cuddle with you lots and lots!

Samantha

Samantha is an 8 year old Staffie mix with a lovable smile. She's very intelligent, loves to fetch balls and is a great swimmer. She is great indoors and loves to sleep in a bed. She would like to be in a home without any small children or other pets...she doesn't want to share your love! Samantha would make a great companion! Are you willing to change her life (and yours!) for the better and give her a fur-ever home?

Sunshine

Sunshine is a sweet kitty who can be shy when first meeting new people. She likes other cats, and once she gets to know you, she is very friendly and loves attention! Ginger kitties have huge hearts and big personalities and are so entertaining and playful! Who doesn't need more of that kind of sunshine in their lives?! Once you meet Sunshine, you won't want to leave without her. Let her shine in your home and bring warmth to your family!

Hunter

Boy, does Hunter love to swim! He is a 5 year old Coonhound/ Tree Walker mix. Hunter is a vocal boy, in true hound fashion, and will let you know when he is feeling left out of the fun! This exuberant, sweet boy just loves life - so he may get mouthy when excited, but he doesn't mean it! He needs a loving home and some guidance to be the perfect family pet. He hopes you will come meet him today!
